O o Numb. 956.

The Daily Courant.

Wedneſday, May 9. 1705.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 12.

Baſil, May 3.

SIgnior Bianchi the Venetian Reſident, has had a 2d publick Audience of the Regents of Zurich, in which he deſir'd them to appoint Commiſſioners to treat with him on the Offers he had to make for renewing the ancient Alliance between the Republick of Venice and the Cantons of Zurich and Bern. The Marquis de Puiſieux, Ambaſſador of France, has begun to pay to the Rman Catholick Cantons who are in Alliance with that Crown, the Penſions his Maſter uſually gives them. That Miniſter likewiſe renew'd his Inſtances to the Regents of Zurich, to prevail with them to order the Camiſars who retir'd lately into their Canton, to quit it: The French take great Umbrage at the Continuance of thoſe Camiſars in the ſaid Canton, tho' they have no Arms, and are at a great Diſtance from the Lake of Geneva; and have very lately poſted a Regiment of Dragoons and ſome Companies of Foot on the Side of that Lake in Savoy to prevent their paſſing it into that Dutchy. Monſieur Reading, whom the King of France lately made a Major General, upon his taking Service in his Majeſty's Troops, is come to Switz, with Deſign to raiſe a certain Number of Men to fill up his Regiment of Swiſs, who with himſelf were by the French made Priſoners of War, (when in the Service of the Duke of Savoy,) laſt Campaign.

Ratisbon, April 4. Ths Imperialiſts have begun to diſarm all the Inhabitants of Bavaria by way of Precaution; and thoſe of Landſhut have alreadp carried their Arms into the Arſenal of that Place, in Obedience to an Order from Count Leeuwenſtein Governour of the Electorate for the Empire. The Baron Meyer, the Elector of Bavaria's Vice-Chancellor, is gone to Landſhut, to deſire Count Leeuwenſtein in the Name of the Regents at Munich, to give proper Orders that the Troops of the Elector Palatine which are on the March for Italy, may obſerve a Good Diſcipline in their Paſſage through the Territory of Munich.

From the Leiden Gazette, dated May 12.

Cracow, April 25. The Body of Swedes cnmmanded by General Stromberg that came hither lately, reckon to ſtay here ſeveral Weeks; and report Sapieha Treaſurer of Lithuania, and the Staroſt Spieski will come hither likewiſe, with a great Number of Troops. Some pretend the Deſign of the latter is to crown King Staniſlaus; who 'tis ſaid, has ſent to the Cardinal Primate at Dantzick, one Czarnkowki to endeavour once more to perſwade his Eminency to come and aſſiſt in the Ceremony of his Coronation. The Swedes have ſent ſome Troops to Wilicki, to ſecure the Revenues ariſing to the Crown from the Salt Pits there, for the Uſe of the new King: And have detach'd 4000 Men towards Opatow, to join the Heer Potocki, Chief of the new Party form'd in Ruſſia Rubra; and who it ſeems has eſpous'd the Intereſt of King Staniſlaus; 80 Troops of the Army of the Crown that confederated long ſince for King Auguſtus, and are now commanded by the Heer Brzochowski, have embrac'd the ſame Party; and the Body commanded by the Referendarius of the Crown, are about to do the like: The Marſhal of the ſaid confederated Army, with the few Troops he has left with him, is gone to Miletz.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated May 12.

Amſterdam, May 12. Private Letters that are come from Languedoc relating to the Camiſars, contain particulars very different from thoſe that have been publiſh'd at Paris. Theſe private Letters ſay Catinat confeſs'd nothing, notwithſtanding what is pretended to the Contrary; that he and all thoſe who were executed, died with great Reſolution; and that the Plot they are accus'd of having form'd againſt the Town of Nimes and the Catholicks, is an invented Story. The next Letters will probably give a thorough Account of the whole Matter.

Letters from Ratisbon adviſe, that the raiſing of Contributions in Bavaria is continued; that there have been ſome Tumults about it, which have been quieted; and that neceſſary Precautions will be us'd to prevent the like Inconveniences, when the Imperial Troops ſhall have quitted that Electorate. A Tax is laid by the Imperial Court upon the Inhabitants of Bohemia, Part of the Produce of which will be remitted to Prince Eugene of Savoy. Part of the Contributions rais'd in Bavaria will likewiſe be ſent to him. The Daniſh Troops continue in the Upper Palatinat; 'tis nncertain yet whither they will be order'd to march; but ſome Men talk theſe Troops are to be made uſe of as a Body of Reſerve, to be employ'd as Occaſion ſhall offer.

Letters from Saxony of the 6th of this Month, tell us King Auguſtus of Poland had had an Indiſpoſition but was pretty well recover'd of it; and that his Majeſty was about to go from Dreſden to Lipſick, accompanied by the Prince of Furſtenberg, and ſeveral other Perſons of Quality. Upon his Indiſpoſition, the March of the Saxon Troops to their Rendevous in Luſatia was ſuſpended: but 'twas hop'd the Camp deſign'd might be form'd in that Province, before the End of this Month.

The King of Sweden continues at Rawicz, where he has held a Council with his Generals and Miniſters about opening the Campaign. 'Tis reported his Majeſty intends to wait the Arrival of the Troops he has order'd to come to him from the Swediſh Provinces in Germany; from which they promiſe themſelves in Saxony that the Swedes will attempt nothing conſiderable againſt that Electorate, the more becauſe the Czar is drawing together a formidable Army, to enter upon Action.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated May 12.

Lipſick, May 6. To Day a Courier ſent Expreſs from Dreſden brought Word, that King Auguſtus will be here to Morrow Night, and that next Week will go from hence to Carelsbad in Bohemia. 'Tis ſaid his Majeſty has reſolv'd to ſend 4000 Men of his beſt Troops to ſerve on the Rhine.
